Dear CJ Ciaramella:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated May 21, 2013 that we received on May 29, 2013.

I am unable to send the information you requested by June 26, 2013, which is the 20 business-day period allowed by law. I apologize for any inconvenience this delay may cause.

STATUTORY EXTENSION OF TIME FOR RESPONSE

The FOIA allows an additional ten-day statutory extension in certain circumstances. To complete your request I need additional time to search for, collect, and review responsive records from other locations. We have extended the statutory response date to July 11, 2013, after which you can file suit. An administrative appeal is limited to a denial of records, so it does not apply in this situation.

REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL EXTENSION OF TIME

Unfortunately, we will still be unable to locate and consider release of the requested records by July 11, 2013. We have extended the response date to August 9, 2013 when we believe we can provide a final response.

You do not need to reply to this letter if you agree to this extension. You may wish to consider limiting the scope of your request so that we can process it more quickly. If you want to limit your request, please contact the individual named below. If we subsequently deny your request, you still have the right to file an administrative appeal.

You may file suit if you do not agree to an extension beyond the statutory period. Your suit may be filed in the U.S. District Court:

- Where you reside or have your principal place of business
